Dear Armand:

Thank you very much for sending me some of the detail on your Heath holdings. You certainly have a beautiful group of them.

I am returning a photocopy of what you sent me so that you can answer a few other questions. First I would like some additional detail as to the three items you listed as first editions, each of which has a different number of pages. Please check the recommendations at the back of each of them to determine the latest date of those recommendations. The recommendations follow the numbered pages. If there are no recommendations, please so indicate. I would also like to know as to whether there is a date on the front of the title page of any of them.

You might also tell me what the colors are of the bindings of the first editions.

In your 11th edition you list 39 pages. Are these numbered pages? My edition only has 32 pages. Please clarify.

On your 12th edition your sheet shows the date of 1876. Where does this date occur, either on the front or the back of the title page or elsewhere?

In your 13th edition, dated 1881, you indicate that there are 40 numbered pages and I would like to know if that is accurate or if some pages have been removed. There should be 47 possibly.

I very much look forward to your list of the large counting house editions, other than the presentation copies already listed.

I am wondering if you have any defective copies of Heath, either large or small, as I have a few pieces which need repair. If you have any which need repair, please let me know what pages you need and I'll see if I have them.

Would it be possible for you to send me a photocopy of the title page and also the verso of the title page of the Bennett item and the Gilbert item.

I am glad you are so interested in this area but I fully realize that this is just a minor part of your interest in the literature.

I will see you in Cincinnati, and perhaps you will be nice enough to bring along any items which it might be necessary for me to see.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman

Mr Newman

Enclosed is the information you requested –

Armand

Dear Mr. Newman:

Sorry for not getting back with you sooner. Kay and I were visiting Las Vegas and just returned to find your letter.

Rather than trying to describe the detailing you want, I am sending you the six copies of counterfeit detectors. I hope that you enjoy them and can return them to me as soon as possible. I probably will not sleep until they are back. While talking with Kolbe, he mentioned that he has six cases against the U.S. Postal Service on lost books sent to his customers.

Cal Wilson (whom I asked to call you) informed me that you will be our key speaker at the Biblio meeting in Cincinnati. I am certainly honored that you accepted. Nancy Green and Martin Gengerki will also be speaking.

Enclosed please find the Gilbert-Bennent and four Heaths you mentioned. The 1881 has 47 pages, and the 1864, 11th edition has 32 pages (not 39 as mentioned). As for the 1876, 12th edition, I got my information from the NASCA Description, and I could not find a date. I have no defective counterfeit detectors.

I am currently looking for a Perkins Bank Bill test. I understand that you purchased yours at the Streeter Sale. Do you know of another copy that may be available other than the Fuld copy purchased by Harry Bass?

As you know, there are very few secrets in the numismatic world. I heard that you have a duplicate set of Crosby's on the original covers, unbound. If so, would you consider trading your set or offering it for sale? I would love to add it to my library. Thank you for your time.

Please write,

Armand Champa

Dear Armand:

Your books arrived. Thank you for cooperating.

I am leaving for Europe tomorrow so I don't have time to study them. Your phone is unlisted. The Rollerdrome gave me a sales pitch when I telephoned.

I'll have to return the books by mail after I return on July 16 or could bring them to the ANA in Cincinnati.

I will have much to tell you after completing their examination.

Excuse my haste

Sincerely,

July 2, 1988

Dear Mr Newman

I'm sorry for not giving you my phone number on overnight on my part. on its return of the books whichever is best for you, bring them to the A.N.A in Cincinnati, or mail them to me, so that I can have them to show at my home on the 23rd. I've had for some time a Manuscript By Eric P Newman

Dear Armand:

What an interesting auction item you sent me. You should have bought the lot for $55 in 1906 and not just the catalog.

I missed seeing you in Orlando but was told that Kay was not up to it. I certainly hope the new findings can be of great help to her.

Every now and then I acquire a rare numismatic book I do not have so that my library continues to grow. You have often threatened to inspect it.

I hope our paths cross soon.

Thanks again.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman

Dear Armand:

It was delightful seeing you in Baltimore and I wish we could have spent more time together. Unfortunately, I was involved in too many other matters.

I told you that there was just submitted to me an aquatic exercise program to which our foundation is being asked to contribute. I am sending you a copy of the program, eliminating all of the budgetary figures. I am doing this as it might be helpful to Kay. If you want to participate financially, I will gladly send you the figures, but I am primarily interested in seeing if this program could be a benefit to Kay. Has she considered aquatic exercise?

If you need me to follow up in any way, please fell free to let me know. It sounds as though it is very worthwhile to investigate.

My best to both of you.

Sincerely,

Eric P. Newman
